FINA PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE FOR THE 21th FINA WORLD JUNIOR DIVING CHAMPIONSHIPS 2016

It is my pleasure to present you the 21st FINA World Junior Diving Championships to be held from, November 29 – December 4, 2016 in Kazan, Russia.

This competition is taking place three months after the conclusion of the major rendezvous of the year, the 2016 Olympic Games in Rio de Janeiro (BRA). There, in Maria Lenk outdoor pool, we have witnessed outstanding diving performances and athletes assured top-level by demonstrating their sense of fair-play and Olympic spirit.

Artistic and dynamic, spectacular and breath-taking, diving as a discipline has developed tremendously over the recent years: the inclusion of the Team Event in the World Championships Programme, the freshness of the yearly FINA World Series and the Grand Prix, the well-attended FINA Judges Schools and Clinics are some of the numerous examples of this development.

The FINA World Junior Diving Championships plays a critical role within this context: it gives a unique opportunity to the youngest talents to be revealed and create awareness among the youth about this beautiful and highly technical discipline.

The competition is returning to the recently-built state-of-the-art Aquatics Palace in Kazan – the venue which hosted the diving competition at the FINA World Championships back in 2015. The venue hosted various international diving events since then, such as legs of the prestigious Diving World Series.

I am sure that with the support of spectators, media representatives and sponsors, these championships will be a great success and will constitute a milestone in the history of the competition.

I would like to take this opportunity to express my sincere gratitude to Russia's Diving Federation for the tremendous work and full commitment in organising the 21st FINA World Junior Diving Championships in Kazan, the capital of Tatarstan. Russia is a regular organiser of FINA events and we all appreciate the professionalism that the FINA Family experiences in this vibrant city.

To the participating athletes, coaches and officials I wish them the best of luck!

Dr. Julio C. Maglione
FINA President
